HOW ?

WHERE ?

At TMAB, we hold respect in the highest regard

RESPECT

We firmly believe in the positive attitude and intentions of every individual, at every level, in the organization of an event. We respect each person's individuality, the often complex structures our clients operate within, and the real constraints that subcontractors may face.

Together everyone achieves more!

We take the unthinkable
and impossible
ideas as a challenge

- Innovative Solutions
- Eventwebsite & Registration platform
- A/V Production & follow up
- Graphic Design

REFERENCES

A recent jury report that evaluated our dedication and experience said the following about TMAB:

"The tender is excellent, of very high quality and fully complies with all requested services. A very good understanding is shown of the EU context, our communications aims, target audiences and key messages. Events are clearly positioned as part of a wider communications strategy."

"The tender proposes a very strong team of professionals, with high-quality senior members, supported by a very solid system of back-ups, guaranteeing an excellent approach to ensuring business continuity."

"Realistic and suitable logistics for booking venues, catering, transport and travel arrangements are detailed. Concrete measures are in place to ensure sustainability and corporate social responsibility. The tender gives a thorough explanation on its approach towards data protection management. The planning is very clear and well explained, with detailed timeline and people responsible for each task. A risk plan is also included."

"With regards to virtual/hybrid event organisation, TMAB includes relevant examples which demonstrate similar services carried out to very high quality. A very good understanding is shown of ways to encourage engagement and participation. Webstreaming is covered in detail including specific platform analysis."

Framework contracts

"We sincerely appreciate the efficient, can-do attitude and the level of detail and accountability that your team consistently demonstrated during all events."

David Batchelor - Chief External Affairs & Communication - SESAR Joint Undertaking

Co-organisation

"Although working with seven different Joint Undertakings was not easy sometimes, we have experienced a high degree of professionalism and a solution-oriented efficiency from the entire TMAB team."

Luciano Gaudio - Head of Communications - Member of the Chips JU Executive Director Office

Demanding clients

"The TMAB team was very helpful and respectful at all times towards the organisers, participants and other external partners. TMAB always provided added value through a creative and open-minded approach while respecting the specific requirements of the event."

Bart Hubrechtsen - Colonel General Staff - Chief TF 2024

Belgian EU Presidency

"Your dynamism, flexibility and professionalism led to the smooth running of the many meetings, conferences, receptions, trips and visits, both at Egmont Palace and throughout the country, despite the sometimes challenging conditions and deadlines. So we are happy to share with you the many congratulations FPS Foreign Affairs received from the participants."

Berbel Baert - Operations Coordinator EU2024

At European Level

"Your sense of detail, your capacity to provide the best subcontractors, rigorous financial follow-up and your professionalism and experience ensured that our events were true successes. We are very pleased with the good and efficient collaboration."

Thérèse de Liedekerke - Deputy Director General - BusinessEurope
